Jesus asked why they were so afraid and where was their faith.

The disciples woke up Jesus because they were afraid they were going to die.

When evening came the crowd was sent home. Jesus and his followers decided to take the boat to the other side of the sea.

Jesus got up and spoke to the wind and said to the sea, "Peace, be still." The wind stopped, and everything was calm.

A large crowd had been gathered at the seaside to listen to Jesus. He spoke to them from a boat while they stood on the shore.

While Jesus slept, a big wind storm came up and waves filled the boat with water.
