
A Culture Of Confusion: A Study In 1 Corinthians

"Final Thoughts "

01-26-25

1 Corinthians 16:13-24

Introduction: Today we conclude our study of 1 Corinthians.

1. Paul has dealt with the problems, answered the questions, and shared his future plans.
2. As he closes his letter, he shares some final thoughts.
3. He wants the Corinthians to respond positively to this letter.
4. He wants the Corinthians to value healthy relationships.
5. He wants the Corinthians to be secure in their relationship with Christ.

I. A Positive Response

- A. Alert
- B. Stand Firm
- C. Act Like Men
- D. Be Strong
- E. Love

II. Value Healthy Relationships

- A. Interdependence
- B. Appreciation

C. Affection

III. Secure In Christ

- A. A Warning
- B. A Prayer

Conclusion: After 16 chapters of problems, Paul closes on a high note.

1. He wants what's best for this church and knows how to get there.
2. The path he lays out is still true today.
3. So, as we close, let's do some self-evaluation:
 - Are you responding positively to God's Word?
 - Are you developing/protecting healthy relationships?
 - Are you secure in your relationship with Jesus?
4. This is the pathway to life to it's very full and I'd love to help you find that path for your life.
