Introduction: As we continue our journey through John's gospel, we come to a pivotal point in Christ's ministry.

1. The people's expectations for Jesus will collide with His purpose. As a result, many of His followers withdrew.
2. There is an important lesson in this reality because a similar problem exists today.
3. Jesus is the Bread of Life. He came into our world to be our Savior.
4. His sacrifice on the cross where His body was broken and His blood shed is the basis for our salvation.
5. When we accept Him by faith as our Savior, we receive eternal life.
6. But just as was true in Jesus' day, it is easy to misunderstand Jesus.
7. When our expectations are not realized, we reject Him.
8. To protect against this, we will work through the rest of John 6 separating fact from fiction.
